

DEPARTMENT 5 JUNIOR DAIRY GOATS and GENERAL GOAT PROJECT

Superintendent – Kim Nerby

NOTE: Members enrolled in Dairy Goats & General Goats may also exhibit items in Dept. 10, Class A. These are Vet Science non-animal items.

Refer to the Animal Health Regulations for Fairs and Shows in Wisconsin for current identification requirements for goats. Exhibitor is responsible for correct identification on each goat and completing the Animal Id and Check-In Form accurately. Goats not meeting the requirements cannot be allowed to participate or even remain in the barn.

Judging will begin with Showmanship (Senior, Intermediate and Junior) followed by breeds. Show schedule will be posted in the barn. Grand Champion Showmanship winner in each group will have the opportunity to participate in the Round Robin Showmanship competition, Sunday at 4 PM.

A Herdsmanship Award will be given to the club with the overall highest score based on general appearance and neatness of exhibit; storage of feed and equipment; decorations that are well presented with complete information and education; and members presence. Herdsmanship Awards are presented at the Round Robin Showmanship Competition, Sunday at 4 PM.

ANIMAL EXHIBIT RULES:

1. Goats with full natural horns may not be entered unless full natural horns are a standard for a specific breed. Dairy Goats may not have horns.
2. Any dairy doe 24 months of age or over that has never freshened may not be shown.
3. All animals will be checked by superintendents prior to unloading, during the fair entry times. Animals must be in good health, appear on the Animal Vet ID Check-In form and be correctly identified
4. All exhibitors are responsible for cleaning up after themselves and their animals.
5. Any advertising, other than the exhibitor's family name or farm name, will not be allowed to be on display in the barn, on clothing or in the showing.
6. Exhibits in Breed Classes cannot additionally enter in the Pet class.

KIDS WITH KIDS GOAT SHOW

The Kids With Kids Goat show is open to La Crosse County youth who are age 3 through second grade (completed).
 The kid goat shown by the participant must be born February 1 2022 or later.
 The show will be held in the Rowe Arena, Sunday, July 24, 2022, starting promptly at 1:00 PM.
 The goat is to be brought in that day for the show and taken out after the show.
 Participant may also borrow a goat that we will have available.
 Each participant will be asked to walk his/her goat around and answer a question. They will then receive a ribbon and a gift.
 Please register by July 1 for all gifts. Registration after this date will still receive a ribbon and gift, however we simply cannot guarantee all gifts. Register by completing the online form at:
